Campbell County Fiscal Court and Campbell County Rural Knothole celebrate completion of lighting project at Pendery Park

Melbourne, KY – Tonight, the Campbell County Fiscal Court and the Campbell County Rural Knothole Baseball Association celebrated the lighting of the baseball fields at Pendery Park in southern Campbell County.

In 2002, the Campbell County Fiscal Court and the Campbell County Rural Knothole Baseball Association began a partnership to undertake a substantial project of lighting the baseball diamonds at Pendery Park.

The Fiscal Court contributed $134,400 to this project, and significant donations of labor, materials, and equipment were secured to minimize cost. Without the partnership of the Fiscal Court and Knothole, this lighting project would have cost over $400,000.

Campbell County Judge Executive Steve Pendery stated, "It is great to come together and celebrate the successful completion of such a project. The partnership between the County and Knothole is an example of how we can get great things accomplished for the people of Campbell County when we work together. Families and children in the County will enjoy these recreational advancements for many, many years to come."
